HABİB ŞAKO

Computer Engineer Student

I am a student in the 4th year of computer engineering at Inonu University. I am developing myself in the field of software. I am an ambitious, a fast learner and a hard working engineer. I can adapt to teamwork and I am a responsible, meticulous and cooperative person. I enjoy facing and solving challenges and I am always eager to improve myself and willing to learn new things. I am interested in Android (Kotlin) and web development(React JS) at the moment. I know the basic logic of hosting domain and DNS structures.
